Library Associates: Who We Are, What We Do

The Norfolk Library Associates is a group of volunteers dedicated to supporting, through its fundraising efforts, free programs and activities that expand and enhance regular library operations.

Membership in the Library Associates is open to any person who wishes to contribute to ensure that the cultural and artistic events continue to be a vital part of the Norfolk Library.

The Library Associates was founded in 1973 as a non-profit organization under Article 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Financial contributions to the Associates are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law.

Share Your Time and Talent

The Library Associates welcomes residents and visitors to the area to attend its monthly meetings, regularly or sporadically, to share ideas and get involved, a little or a lot.

Meetings are held the first Tuesday of every month, at 12:00 noon, in the Great Hall. It's a great way to meet people from the area, have some fun and support the Library, one of Norfolk's treasures.

For additional information, come to a meeting or call the Library at (860) 542-5075 to have one of our officers get in touch with you.
